Information

Are you eager to have impact and develop impactful policy suggestions for the Impact Economy? Do you want to contribute to the thought leadership of the Impact Economy Foundation? Do you have a background in (EU) policies on sustainability and corporate governance? Do you want to use your skills to contribute to our movement for the Impact Economy that creates well-being for all? Then, be sure to apply for the position of Impact Economy Policy intern.

We are currently looking for an Impact Economy Policy Intern to join our office in Amsterdam. In this position, you work together with our high-level advisory council, academic council, board and 2100 Network to contribute to the policy agenda for the Impact Economy. You will work on policy papers on the Impact Economy and engage in advocacy for impactful policies.

Activities

As an Impact Economy Policy Intern you will be part of the Impact Economy Foundation team and work on:

- The development of the Impact Economy Roadmap with the key policies focussing on sustainability and sustainable corporate governance needed to reach the Impact Economy.
- Write policy papers on policy suggestions for the Impact Economy, relating to f.e. the CSRD.
- Engage in advocacy activities for more impactful policies.
- Contribute to and enrich the vision of the Impact Economy.

Your profile

You are looking for a hands-on professional experience in a stimulating environment, where you get the opportunity to work on impactful projects with high-level executives. You want an internship at an ambitious, fast-growing organisation that works on making societal impact the core of every organisation. You are looking for an opportunity to learn about and contribute to a cutting-edge field of Impact Economics that is increasingly adopted among private, public and non-governmental sector organizations worldwide.

- HBO/University (bachelor required)
- Relevant background in (EU-)policies relating to sustainability and corporate governance (such as the CSRD and the CSDD).
- Strong writing skills, ideally experience with writing policy papers
- Affinity with sustainable development and writing of policy papers
- An ambitious, structured and proactive style of working
- Ambitious person with a drive to improve the world
- Ability to write in English at academic level. Dutch fluency is a plus.

What do we offer?

- A dynamic and stimulating working environment with a professional and young culture
- A 6-month full-time internship
- A compensation between €425 and €650 per month, depending on your study progress and commuting costs up to €275 per month, based on a full-time internship
- Active coaching and supervision
- Actual responsibilities and the opportunity to have impact
- Perspective on a job in case of excellent performance
- Functional work area: impact economy, development of policy suggestions for the Impact Economy
- Hours per week: 32–40
- Additional benefits: Laptop

Are you ready?

Are you as excited about impact as we are? Then be sure to apply for this position by sending your resume, motivation letter and list of grades (in English) to info@impacteconomyfoundation.org. We review applications on a rolling basis. We prefer to have direct contact with our applicants, therefore we do not work with intermediaries, such as recruitment agencies.

Any questions regarding the vacancy? Feel free to send us an e-mail at info@impacteconomyfoundation.org.

About the Impact Economy Foundation

The Impact Economy Foundation (IEF) accelerates the transition towards the impact economy: an economy in which work, entrepreneurship and innovation resolve our societal issues and create broad prosperity for all. With our growing movement of organisations and executives we develop and implement the mindset, instruments and incentives for the impact economy. We help organisations to measure, report and steer on impact. One of our key instruments, the Impact-Weighted Accounts Framework (developed together with the Harvard Business School, Rotterdam School of Management, Impact Institute and the Singapore Management University) puts societal value creation at the heart of every organization.
